

A Recognized Leader in International Logistics

At Reilly International,
we know the importance of finding a reliable international logistics provider—

a partner who not only has the resources you need,
but who also takes a genuine interest in your business and proactively seeks for ways you can increase efficiency and enhance your profitability.

And that's where we shine.

Personal Care

At Reilly International, our commitment to personal care starts from within our organization. We value our people, and that's why we work hard to create a nurturing environment—one that helps our employees build on their strengths and experience growth both as an employee and as an individual. And over the years, we have found that taking great care of our staff means that they, in turn, take great care of our clients. So when you partner with Reilly International, you'll find that our service is delivered by dedicated people with a genuine passion for their work.

As with every client, we'll start by developing an in-depth understanding of your supply chain in order to provide you with logistics solutions that will help make your business more profitable. We take the time to apply our expertise to your requirements, while maintaining the flexibility to react quickly and provide timely solutions to your changing needs. With creativity and consistent open communication, Reilly International works hard in making it easier for you.

International Freight Logistics

Ocean or air, expedited or consolidated, you can count on Reilly International for the shipping solutions that best meet your needs. We professionally oversee all phases of transportation, port-to-port and door-to-door. Our experts are dedicated to knowing your business thoroughly and managing your shipments with utmost precision. You can rest assured that your needs will be met with the highest degree of quality and speed and that your shipping solutions will be matched to your explicit needs.

Customs Clearance

Through more than 20 years of attracting the top customs talent in the industry, Reilly International has built a reputation as a leading customs resource. Our expert staff of licensed customs brokers, cargo transport agents and international documentation specialists will help you maximize compliance and deliver the smoothest possible clearance.

Express Lane Solutions

Reilly International's Express Lane solutions rank among the quickest, most reliable shipping methods to the Midwest. All shipments follow a pre-determined schedule, arriving directly to our customs-bonded warehouse via a consistent and established route. Up-to-the-minute status tracking is available at your fingertips. Your freight will be carefully unloaded and inspected at our facility, then dispatched to its final destination the same day it arrives.

Vendor Consolidation

Reilly International is geographically positioned to efficiently consolidate freight from anywhere in the U.S. We learn the intricacies of your supply chain in order to develop, fine-tune, and deliver the best and most cost-effective system for consolidating and transporting your cargo to its international destination.

With full visibility via our website and data delivered to your specifications, you'll have the flexibility to meet your requirements to expedite or consolidate, eliminating multiple shipments and realizing significant savings.

Specialized Customs Solutions

Customs brokerage is how Reilly International got its start. You might say it's in our DNA. In fact, our company founder, Vickie Reilly, still holds the record as the youngest individual to have ever received a U.S. Customs Broker's License. Our team's extensive experience has allowed us to assist clients not only with customs compliance and processing, but also with Focused Assessments, the implementation of Foreign Trade Sub-Zones and duty drawback. Additionally, our fully-automated system enables convenient and dependable customs processing every time.

"You guys should write a book on how to treat customers! A lot of people could learn from how you do business!"

Warehousing

With our state-of-the-art, high-security facility centrally located in the USA's largest shipping hub, Reilly International is uniquely positioned to provide you with top-notch warehousing and distribution services. Not only is our customs-bonded warehouse situated just minutes from Chicago's O'Hare International Airport, but it's also just one day away from other major U.S. cities including Detroit, Memphis, St. Louis and St. Paul. Plus, your freight will receive a level of care and attention that other facilities can't match.

Onboard Every Step of the Way

International transportation is challenging; it involves a complex coordination of planes, trains, ships and trucks, and often requires multiple border crossings. With so many variables, occasional changes or delays are inevitable. At Reilly International, we understand how important it is for you to know the status of your shipments. That's why our tracking and alert system provides you with intended delivery dates for all shipments and real-time status updates from departure to arrival. Our investment in information technology is just one of the tools we utilize to keep you informed so that you can successfully manage the flow of your products.
